The Chairman introduced the Business of the meeting
by reading the advertisement calling the meeting

Mr Charles Cook took objections to the mode which the announcement of the meeting had been made and contended that the conditions laid down in Rule 58 had not been complied with

Mr Bryant in order to test the objections made by Mr Cook submitted to the meeting the following motion which was

Special Meeting of Members April 18th 1859

seconded by Mr. Cook

That the meeting not having been called in accordance with the rules, this meeting is not competent to take into consideration the important matter proposed to be considered.

The above motions having been put to the meeting only four voted for it the motion was declared lost

Mr. Dodge moved the omission of the words "or alienating any of the Freehold property thereof" from the first and second lines of Rule 57, which was seconded by Mr. Russell. On being put to the meeting thirty eight voted for the motion and thirty six against it. The motion was therefore declared lost, as rule 58 requires that two-thirds of the members present at a special general meeting must vote in favour of an alteration of the rules.

The Minutes of previous meeting held June 6th were read and confirmed

The Secretary stated that on his own responsibility he had applied to Mr. Webb, Architect, for his opinion respecting the erection of a Cottage in the rear and the alterations in the Reading Room and Library requesting at the same time that he (Mr. W.) would say what might be the probable cost of said Cottage and Alterations

The Secretary laid on the Table a design furnished by Mr. Webb estimated to cost under £400, The alterations in the Reading Room and Library could be done for about £100. After the above statement was made considerable discussion took place as to how much of the above should be undertaken at once. Some of the members were anxious that the internal alterations should be commenced immediately but as that would necessitate the removal of the Secretary from the Building until other accommodation was prepared for him, it was felt that some further consideration of the question ~~should be made~~ was necessary, particularly as regards the expense and the means of raising the money, before the General Committee could finally decide upon such works as it would have executed. The agreement by which the services of the Secretary were secured was read and the Committee felt that that agreement must be fulfilled.

After much desultory discussion it was finally moved by Mr. Edwards seconded by Dr. Murray and Car^r:

That the sub-committee appointed on the 15th May last consisting of the Vice-president, Mr. Gibb, Mr. Black, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Rollings, Mr. Alston, Mr. Ausmich do report in writing to the General Committee as to the best mode of effecting the enlargement of the Reading Room and Library, of providing accommodation for the Secretary and raising the necessary funds to carry out the same.

Mr. Ausmich stated that he had seen Mr. R. Young according to his promise to the Committee at their last meeting. That Mr. Young in the most handsome manner accepted the desire of the Committee to give Shakespearean Readings provided the time would suit his other engagements.

The arrangement with Mr. R. Young to be left with the President and the Secretary.

Mr. Balmain gave notice of motion as follows, for next meeting.

That in future the meetings of the Committee of the Institution be held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

24th June 1859

Report of the sub-committee appointed the 16th day of May 1859 to consider and report to the General Committee of Management the best mode of effecting the enlargement of the accommodation in the Building and providing the funds for the same

Mr President & Gentlemen

Your sub committee having met and attentively considered the subject for which they were appointed they to lay before the Committee the following recommendations as the result of their deliberations.

1 That a Cottage be erected at the rear of the Building for the accommodation of the Secretary on as cheap a plan as possible so that the rooms which he now occupies may be vacated

2 That all the partitions in the east side of the Building be removed, and such number of metal pillars introduced as may be found necessary for supporting the Hall above. This alteration will make one room measuring 25 ft. x 33 ft. for the Library

3 That the partition in the present reading room be removed and metal pillars introduced instead which will make clear space measuring 25 ft. x 33 ft. for the Reading Room

4 That the above additions and alterations do not exceed the sum of £500

5 That the Trustees be requested to procure from the Bank such portions of the above sum as may be necessary to enable the Committee to proceed immediately with the said improvements

The following a/c examined and found correct by the Finance Committee and recommended for payment - were passed in the usual manner

Dr	Greenshield & Son	} 8-8-0
	in full payment of all demands
	Gas Company	9-3-6
	The Porter 4 weeks	6- " - "
	" Assistant "	10- " - "
	" Secretary	25- " - "
	Surveys	5-16- 4
	Melbourne Insurance	7-10- "

The Secretary stated that Dr Murray and Mr Dempster had had several meetings respecting the Ventilation of the Reading Room, Dr Murray proposed introducing a new plan, Mr Dempster offer^d to do the same and alter the lighting according to specification for the sum of £14.

The Committee after some discussion on the subject suggested that Mr Dempster should give separate sums for the Ventilation and the Lighting and as the total amount was thought too large Mr Gibb and Mr Alston proposed to send another person to tender for the work

The Secretary drew the attention of the Committee to the new books on the table lately received from Mudie of London. The Committee expressed themselves well satisfied with the selection and the manner which the order had been executed

In consequence of Professor Hearn's intimation that ~~in~~ his numerous engagements would prevent him from offering himself for election as president of the Institution for the ensuing year, a lengthened conversation took place respecting his successor, the subject was however postponed until next meeting in order to give members time to consider the matter more fully
