The President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and the following members of Committee retire from office, but are eligible for re-election, viz.:—Messrs. Danson, Downward, Elkington, Harlin, Hayter, Lush, Millie, and Moloney.

The Committee would urgently request those members who really take an interest in the progress of the Institution, to invite their friends to join it. It may be said, with strict truth, that there is no self-supporting Institution of the same character in the colony where similiar advantages are obtained for so small an annual subscription. In proportion as the present debt on the new building is decreased, the funds for furnishing the Library and Reading Room will increase. By adding to the list of subscribers, the members will give material assistance to the Committee, and will warrant them in indulging the hope that, in twelve or fifteen years, the Institution will be entirely free from debt, thus permitting the whole of the receipts to be devoted to the enlargement and enrichment of the literary treasures, and to the general improvement of the Melbourne Athenæum.
