REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

OF THE

MELBOURNE ATHENÆUM,

For the Year 1889.

The Committee congratulate the members of the Melbourne Athenæum on the great success of the Institution during the past year.

By referring to the Balance Sheet, it will be seen that the gross receipts for the year amount to £4558 6s. 3d., and the expenditure to £3571 0s. 3d., giving a surplus of £987 6s., increasing our cash balance to £3865 7s. 6d., of which £3275 is deposited at interest.

The following are the details of the receipts:—Subscriptions, £1530 16s.; rent of front shops, £1155; rent of large hall, £1239 19s. 8d.; small hall, £232 14s.; rooms, £256 14s. 10d.; interest, £120; sales, £23 1s. 9d.

The principal items of expenditure are:—Interest on mortgage, £990; salaries and wages, £994 10s.; books, magazines and newspapers, £625 5s. 1d.; repairs and furniture, £276 5s. 2d.; gas and electric light, £267 12s. 10d.; rates, £127 10s.; binding, £97 14s. 5d.

The electric light has been introduced into the reading room, library, vestibule, and corridors, and has been found a great improvement, especially in the reading room, where the temperature in the evening has been reduced by eighteen degrees.

There are now 1515 members on the roll, of whom 312 joined during the year.

The number of books added to the Library was 698; the total number of works issued to subscribers was 30,601, and 7209 magazines.

The President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and the following members of Committee retire from office, but are eligible for re-election, viz. :—Messrs. Bates, Ievers, Iliffe, Levi, Ridley, Sangster, Tucker, and Meeks.

Although this Report is made only to members of the Institution, the Committee feel justified in taking advantage of the publicity which will be given to it, to bring before the general public some of the advantages of this Institution. For the payment of an annual subscription of one guinea, subscribers can have the use of the reading room, in which are to be found all the leading papers of Victoria and the neighbouring colonies, the best of the British, and some foreign newspapers, together with all the best of the British magazines. The circulating library is well supplied with standard works in every department of literature, and each mail brings copies of new works. Life membership may be secured by the payment of ten guineas in one amount.

The Committee would again request members to take an active interest in the Institution, by inducing new members to join. By so doing, they will enable the Committee to make many useful additions to the library, and to carry out other improvements in the Institution.

JOSEPH GOODE, President.
