

SEPTEMBER NEWS FROM YOUR LIBRARY

Breaking News!

Lift Reopened

Our historic lift has reopened with its brand-new motor.

Thank you for your patience while this major work has been happening.

SEPTEMBER NEWS FROM YOUR LIBRARY

Partridge Quartet Premiere

The Partridge String Quartet will make its first appearance at the Library on 8 September, so don't miss these talented four.

Formed in 2017, the Quartet has received national recognition, winning first prizes at the Queensland International Chamber Music, Australian National Academy of Music Chamber Music and Musica Viva Chamber Music competitions.

They have collaborated with widely recognized Australian artists and engaged in festivals, concert series and projects around Australia.

Details

Doors open at 5:30pm for a 6:00pm start, Friday 8 September.

Book your place at the Library by going to <https://www.trybooking.com/CKBJV> or calling (03) 9650 3100.

Members are free, guests $12.

Rosie Westbrook and John Phillips guitar showcase and much more

Join us for a very special evening on 22 September, when renowned guitarists and instrumentalists, Rosie Westbrook and John Phillips will be performing.

Rosie is a composer for film and television and a rock guitarist who has performed with legends such as Sean Kelly (The Models) and Mick Harvey (PJ Harvey; ex-Nick Cave & the Bad Seeds). She is renowned for creating music that is haunting, spacious and inherently cinematic.

SEPTEMBER NEWS FROM YOUR LIBRARY

John Phillips is renowned for his incandescent guitar sounds in the legendary Australian band Not Drowning, Waving, as well as his work on countless soundtracks for screen and television.

Rosie and John have come together in a collaboration that will see the release of an EP in 2024.

Details

Doors open at 5:30pm, music starts at 6:00pm, Friday 22 September.

Book your place at the Library by going to <https://www.trybooking.com/CKMXF> or calling (03) 9650 3100.

Members are free, guests $12.

Plan your nights out now!

Our remaining confirmed 2023 events are included here, starting with the return of the ever-popular Affinity Quartet on 6 October. Book in now to avoid missing out on another amazing performance.

Events will be in each e-news with tickets on sale about six weeks prior.

6 October	Affinity Quarter back again! Book at https://www.trybooking.com/CKTHE
20 October	La Descarga and the Electropical Orchestra
1 December	Flinders Quartet's Zoe Knighton, Solo Cello performance
15 December	Author Peter Beilharz and Chain singer and guitarist, Phil Manning, to discuss Peter's new book, Chain's Toward the Blues

A reminder, also, that our members can access a 10% discount when dining at Bistro D'Orsay downstairs - it's a great way to follow up one of our performances.

SEPTEMBER NEWS FROM YOUR LIBRARY

Who am I? Winner

The winner of our Who Am I? contest in the August newsletter was Marjorie McBroom, who wins a three-month extension to her Ath membership.

The answer was Georgette Heyer.

Keep an eye out for future competitions.

